“(CASA) has been one of the best advocates for youth in the Justice System”.
-Todd Thompson,
Leavenworth County Attorney

“Services CASA provides to the domestic court are necessary, generally invaluable, and difficult if not impossible to replace”.
-Honorable Judge Wiley

“CASA provides invaluable service for both CINC cases & for visitation & exchange of children in domestic cases.”
-Honorable Judge Asher

Court Appointed Special Advocates (CASA)

Recruits, trains and certifies average citizen volunteers to advocate for the best interest of abused and neglected children in the court system. Considered the eyes and ears of the Judge. Volunteers advocate for the best interest of the child while ensuring the child is safe. CASA Volunteers are sensitive to the child’s sense of time and work tirelessly to achieve a permanent or “forever home” for children.

- Stats collected from 1/1/22-12/31/22
- 53 children served
- 21 active CASA Volunteers
- 1,990 documented Volunteer hours
- 16,004 documented Volunteer miles

Child Exchange and Visitation Center (CEVC)

Provides a safe and neutral environment for children and parents to visit. Three types of services offered: Supervised Visits, Monitored Visits and Monitored Exchange. Visitation Center is open 5 days a week, offering weekend and evening hours to accommodate all schedules. Security staff on duty during all operation hours to ensure clients safety.

- 132 children served
- 71 families served
- 935 visits
- 418 exchanges

Child Advocacy Center (CAC)

Highly trained and certified staff provide forensic interviews to child victims of crime. Services begin at the onset of the abuse investigation with the goal of reducing the amount of trauma to the child victim. The CAC provides evidence for the prosecution of the offender and provides ongoing advocacy services and resources to the child victim and their caregivers.

- 134 new children received forensic interviews
- 111 new children received ongoing advocacy
